Press Release

Brandon Bar Association hosts a series of free monthly workshops on legal topics at the Brandon Regional Library

May 19, 2010 – Brandon, Florida: The Brandon Bar Association, a non-profit organization comprised of local attorneys from the Brandon and Riverview areas, together with the Hillsborough County Library announced today that they are co-sponsoring monthly workshops free to the public regarding a variety of legal topics. Current topics scheduled to be discussed are short sales, divorce, social security disability claims, and estate planning, but many more workshops are planned.

The workshops are intended to provide timely information on legal topics affecting the community and are part of the Brandon Bar's mission to serve the residents of the Brandon and Riverview communities. According to Rory B. Weiner, President of the Brandon Bar Association, "The Brandon Bar knows how important this information is to help people in making informed decisions and learning about legal concepts that may affect their everyday. In these difficult economic times, the free workshops provide a resource for the residents of our area, and the members of the Brandon Bar are pleased to volunteer their time to help our community."

The workshops will be held the first Tuesday of every month from 7:00 to 8:00 P.M. at the Brandon Regional Library. The series begins on June 1, 2010, with a workshop entitled "Short Sales: The Good, The Bad and The Ugly. What a 'Short Sale' is, how it works, and its effects once completed." No registration is required; however, space is limited. Each workshop will feature an attorney from the Brandon Bar Association discussing topics in their area of expertise.
